Attention to Mr. Emmett Dages
Chief Operating Officer of Taylor & Francis Group
Emmett.Dages@taylorandfrancis.com

Helo, Mr. Dages,

I would like to complete our long correspondence as soon as possible and hand over the documents to the lawyer. This requires a very accurate understanding of the attitude of Taylor & Francis to my claims. Unfortunately, there is still no such clear and precise understanding. Therefore, I want to formulate the attitude of Taylor & Francis to each of my claims separately and ask you whether I understand you correctly.

Claim No. 3

The data presented by various Taylor & Francis officials contradict one another and therefore cannot be considered as correct.

Facts:

3.1. 131 books copies are marked in the Email of Mrs. Christin Harrington (Royalty Department Manager) at March 30, 2020 as "unit rentals" and for these copies of royalties the author was not paid.

3.2. According to explanation of Mrs. Christin Harrington in the Email at March 30, 2020, citation:

"e-book rental units (and not book sold) these transactions are tracked in our sales systems but do not include them as units on royalty statements".

3.3. According to Mr. Emmett Dages (Chief Operating Officer of Taylor & Francis Group) Email at May 8, 2020 citation regarding of "unit rentals":

"We include the revenue we receive and the related royalty payment amounts on the royalty statements and pay the royalties but we don't show any units"

Conclusion:

Such contradictory statements by Taylor & Francis officials do not inspire confidence and do not explain why the author was not paid royalties for 131 copies of books

The confirmation:

Please confirm very briefly that the above my understanding of the situation is correct. And if it's not true, then what exactly.

Thanks.

Regards,

Dr. Vladimir Gurevich
