Subject: Regarding of "Unit Rentals"
Folder: /

Good afternoon Dr. Gurevich,

Thank you for your patience. I do hope all is well with you.

I have gone over the analysis with Emmett and have attached to this email your requested analysis.

We are tracking data on two works Digital Protective Relays and Electronic Devices. I believe these open units to be an error in the royalty inquiry performed by the royalty clerk Stephen Kruszewski in September. I do apologize for any errors or confusion. Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Kind regards,

Christin Harrington

Regarding of "Unit Rentals"

Helo, Mr. Dages and Mrs. Harrington

According to your data (see the table and your notes please) 131 copies of my books classified as "Unit Rentals" without royalties.

Book Title	Copies sold according to T&F report at September 16, 2019 (Kruszewski Stephen)	Copies sold according to T&F report at February 22, 2020 (Emmett Dages)	Difference	Explanation for Difference
Protective Devices and Systems	469	220	249	231 sales prior to T&F report 18 units rentals **
Electric Relays	823	799	24	18 units rentals 6 units Jul 19 - Sep 19
Digital Protective Relays	466	411	55	20 units rentals 21 units Jul 19 - Sep 19
Power Supply Devices	385	447	-62	30 units rentals 16 units Jul 19 - Sep 19 negative units adjusted 2003 picked up by i analyst
Cyber and Electromagnetic Threats	193	165	28	27 units rentals 1 unit Jul 19 - Sep 19
Electronic Devices	435	382	53	18 units rentals 20 units Jul 19 - Sep 19

Explanation of Difference

*Relates to the 2003 sales that were made and included on Marcel Dekker royalty statements. Title's sales prior to acquisition by T&F were picked up in Stephen's September, 2019 inquiry of life to date sales.

e-book rental units (and not books sold) these transactions are tracked in our sales systems but do not include them in our royalty statements

For average book value $200 the total amount of 131 books copies classified as "unit rentals" is $ 26,200. This is much more that the royalties for all my 6 books, received during 15 years!

I ask you to explain the use by Taylor & Francis of such a large number of "unit rentals" worth more than 26 thousand dollars.

Thanks.

Regards,

Dr. Vladimir Gurevich
